Award Winning Author Kate Messner to Work with Salisbury Students on Wednesday, January 20th

Kate Messner is an award-winning author whose books for kids have been New York Times Notable, Junior Library Guild, Indie Bound and Bank Street College of Education Best Books selections. The Brilliant Fall of Gianni Z was the winner of the 2010 E.B. White Read Aloud Award for Older Readers. Kate also spent fifteen years teaching middle school and earned National Board Certification in 2006. She lives on Lake Champlain with her family and loves spending time outside, whether it's kayaking in the summer or skating on the frozen lake when the temperatures drop. *

Kate will be doing three presentations during her visit, one for preschoolers through 2nd graders, one for 3rd and 4th graders and one for 5th and 6th graders. She will also be having lunch with a group of interested students to talk more about reading and books.

Students in each class have been reading Kate Messner's books and Teacher Bethany Morrissey has been preparing with Kate so that students will enjoy this opportunity to talk to such an accomplished author! Be sure to ask your child about Kate Messner!

Reminders:

No School on Monday, January 18 (Holiday) and Tuesday, January 19 (In-service day)

Early Release on Wednesday, January 27. Make sure we know your child(ren)'s dismissal plan by Monday, January 25. Students may take the bus at 1 PM; they may be picked up at 1 PM or 2:30 (after staying for "Activity Period;" and those enrolled may stay in the After School Program.

Congratulations to Miley Turner-English for being December's winner of a $5 check from the National Bank of Middlebury.

Each and every week, Friday is "Banking Day" from 7:45 to 8:05 AM. This allows the children to get into a routine of saving!

The School House Savings program is designed to help your child develop good savings habits at an early age. Each time children save at school; their name will be entered in a monthly drawing. The prize is $5. Each month a new drawing will occur, so everyone has an opportunity to win!

Let the school know if you would like banking forms to get your child started with School House Savings.
